

A place for mental health and wellness

With the growth of mental health and addiction challenges comes a sense of responsibility—not only for individuals in treatment, but for their family members as well as the broader community.

Rogers Behavioral Health is pleased to introduce the Ladish Co. Foundation Center. Created to be a place for rest, learning, finding spiritual connections, and discovering new ways to advance mental health treatment, this building is home to the following:

- Ronald McDonald Family Room®
- Tadross Family Chapel and Spiritual Care services
- Great Hall and Community Rooms
- Board Room
- Rogers Research Center
- Rogers Behavioral Health Foundation

What families are saying:

"It is a wonderful, peaceful space, which is such a needed spot in my life while dealing with the mental illness of a child."

"Always a smile and warm welcome!"

A place for family and friends

Relax with a cup of coffee. Grab a snack. Make something in the Creativity Room. Meditate in the chapel. Watch TV. Catch up on business. Read in a comfy chair. Play a game together.
